Career Opportunities in Government Sector

The minority cell of HenryBaker College organized an online career orientation programme “Career Opportunities in Government Sector” for the final year students on 28 March 2022, at 2 pm, in Google Meet. The IQAC coordinator Dr. Nisha Joseph welcomed the gathering and the Principal Dr. Gireeshkumar G. S. delivered the presidential address. In his speech, the principal emphasized the need of understanding the changing nature of careers in the post-pandemic global scenario. Sri. KrishnakumarS. who is presently the Deputy Chief of the University Employment Information and Guidance Bureau at Cochin University of Science and Technology led the session. He enumerated various career opportunities in the government sector, both state and central. He also explained how and when the major public sector employers conduct recruitment. The session was indeed a beneficial one for many of our students. A total of 73 participants attended the programme. Sri. Justin J. Paul, a member of the administrative staff, felicitated the programme and the Minority Cell Convenor Sri. Paul Mathews proposed the vote of thanks.

The seminars were led by Sri. Krishnakumar S., the Deputy Chief of CUSAT's University Employment Information and Guidance Bureau. He explained the objectives and pattern of the NET examination, the kind of questions in each paper, selection criteria, and the reservation policy to the students.

He also discussed the possibilities available to NET holders. The focus of his informative lecture in the second half was on Paper I. He described the pattern and distribution of questions in Paper I, which covered a wide range of topics. Three students were given constellation prizes for their remarkable performance in the question and answer session: Kannan (I M.A. History), Thomaskutty (II M. Com), and Febin Asiya (II M. Com). The vote of thanks was proposed by Sri Paul Mathews, the program coordinator (IQAC).
