SUMMARY REPORT

Programme Code: HBC/HIS/CP01/2022-23

Summary report of the program along with the outcome and assessment procedure:

POSTGRADUATE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Course Summary:

The 30 hours duration certificate course English for Today was conducted for the I BA History students in the academic year 2022-23 by Anjana Aby (Assistant Professor on Contract). The classes were conducted with an aim to foster the command and acquaintance over English. Both English writing, speaking and listening sessions were provided to improve the students language proficiency. Dictations and personal write ups were given as daily tasks and majority of the students actively participated. The whole course was planned in 4 modules where, each module focused on particular skill sets like speaking, writing, proficiency over grammar etc. The 30 hours duration course was successful in personalizing the English language to the students.

Enable students to introduce themselves in English language.

Students will start love English language and show enthusiasm to communicate in English.

Students will master spellings and vocabularies useful for their daily life.

The students will start to communicate and respond in English throughout the class.

ASSESSMENT PROCEDURE: A written examination was conducted at the end of the programme to assess the knowledge of the students in the course and grades were awarded. Of the thirty four participants three students secured A grade, eleven got Grade B+, nineteen had Grade B and one student failed to complete the assessment procedure.
