7.1.1 Specific Facilities Provided for Women

a. Safety and Security

Safety and security of women through persistent care, vigilance and surveillance

Security Personnel: A security guard is posted at the Main Gate

Regulated Entry: All students need to produce their Identity Cards at the entrance gate

CCTV Surveillance: 43 CCTV cameras are installed at various points, ensuring safety

Redressal of Grievances: The Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) deals with grievance if any, and is alert to assure a safe environment for women

The college is extremely alert to matters pertaining to any kind of harassment and gender sensitivity

The Women's Cell monitors all activities and training programmes related to safety and security of women

Experts are invited to conduct workshops and various sessions related to women's safety like self-defence, cyber-law etc.

Vigilance against Ragging: Anti-ragging Committee is formed as per the U.G.C. guidelines

All students give an online affidavit about non- involvement in ragging activities in the UGC Anti-Ragging Cell Website

The Anti-ragging Committee assures that there are no instances of ragging anywhere in the campus

Anti-ragging posters are prominently displayed in the campus

The Women's Hostel provides the students a safe and comfortable environment and is a Zero ragging space.

b. Counseling

Well-regulated Mentoring system for regular academic and personal counselling

Every student is assigned a faculty as her mentor who meet the mentees, providing constant care and support

Adolescent issues, management of stress and tension, and individual problems that cause distress and tension to students, hampering their wholesome development are resolved

Apart from the mentoring provided by teachers, service of a professional counselor was made available in the campus.

Ms. Neethumol N. K., Psychologist, Jeevani Counselling Project under the Department of Collegiate Education, was appointed as counsellor of our college during the academic year. She visited our college from the 1st to the 10th day of each month to provide personal counselling sessions for students in need.
