ANTI RAGGING REPORT 2015-2016

Henry Baker College ensures a ragging free campus with the full co-operation of staff and Students. In order to maintain strict discipline and safety of the students, our college had constituted Anti – ragging cell which works according to UGC norms.

According to the decision taken on 22/09/2015 the college management had collected Affidavit on anti-ragging from the students in written format and also the CCTV cameras were installed both inside and outside campus. Orientation programmes were conducted for both the students and parents. Parents were given full assurance regarding the safety of the students.

No cases were reported this year.

Class wardens had given strict warning to the students regarding the same. Seminars were conducted, through this seminar students were given information regarding the consequence of ragging, about the rules and regulation of UGC and Honourable High court.
