HENRY BAKER COLLEGE, MELUKAVU
Vimukthi De-Addiction Club Activities Report
2017-2018

Anti-Narcotic Cell of the college had done myriads of programmes in 2017-2018 academic year. The cell organised a one-day awareness programme on drug abuse and abstinence from all kinds of use of drugs. Especially college students are the major victims of the use of drugs. Timely interference of teachers and college anti-narcotic cell help our students to stay away from these. The meeting held on 24th March 2017, was a joint programme of Melukavu Gramapanchayth and Kerala Excise Department. In the morning session classes were taken by Sri. Suresh Richard, Deputy Commissioner Excise, Kottayam. He opined that most of the students get addicted to drugs during college days. In order to get drugs, they will be ready to do any criminal activity-attack women and children sometimes even attack their own parents. He reiterated that the students must stay always from the evils of all kinds of toxicants.

Sri. C G Jayadev, Meenachil Taluk Legal Service Committee Secretary, Prof. K C Joseph (Rtd.), Paralegal Volunteer, led the afternoon session. Paralegal volunteers Sr. VM Abdulla Khan and Sri. George Mathew interacted with the students. Forty eight students and fifteen teachers attended the programme.
