1. Youth Empowerment Programme

Program Objectives:

1. Inspiring the pursuit of students' dreams.
2. Fostering responsible and engaged citizenship among students.

On the 7th of December 2022, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell and Career Guidance & Placement Cell of Henry Baker College Melukavu collaborated with the Leo Club of Travancore Royals and Lions Club International District 318 B to conduct a transformative 'Youth Empowerment Program.' The event commenced with a warm welcome by Sri. Siby Mathew, Lions Club District Secretary, and inaugurated by Dr. Sunny V. Zacria, the Lions Club District Governor. In his presidential address, Dr. Gireesh Kumar G.S., College Principal, highlighted the pivotal role of youth in shaping the nation's future. Mr. Georgekutty Augusthy, Chairman of Kinfra Film and Video Park, Thiruvananthapuram, led an engaging motivational session centered on 'Youth: You are the Message and Messenger of the New World.' During this session, he enlightened students about the vital competencies of a healthy youth, including a positive self-image, self-control, and decision-making skills. He also shared his personal experiences and insights.

Dr. Nisha Joseph, IQAC coordinator, extended a vote of thanks to all attendees, emphasizing the collective effort behind this valuable program. The event was successfully managed by the coordinators of the Career Guidance & Placement Cell, including Dr. Jibin Mathew, Mr. Jithin Thomas Abraham, and Shemi Paul.

With a participation count of 183 enthusiastic students, the program achieved its objectives by imparting valuable skills related to personal well-being and inner growth. This 'Youth Empowerment Program' left a positive impact on the students, equipping them with essential tools to thrive in their personal and civic lives.
