HENRY BAKER COLLEGE, MELUKAVU

Report of the SC/ ST Cell during the Academic year 2016-17

The Cell makes sure the effective implementation of the orders of reservation issued from time to time in favor of SC/ST. It promotes the particular interests of students in the reserved categories and provides special care to the students when they face difficulties. The SC/ST/ students can approach the Cell members for the Redressal of any grievance(s) regarding their academic, administrative or social problems. It creates a platform, where students can raise their issues, regarding academic and non academic matters. It assists the students to improve their academic performance and contributes to their personal and social development.

The cell took keen interest to scrutinize all affairs related to SC/ST reservation policies implemented in the institution in accordance with the government policy. It persuaded the students to share their concern regarding their stipends, scholarships and hostel fees. The Cell encouraged the students to attend remedial coaching classes as well as NET Coaching classes conducted by the college. During the academic year one student from M.Com, who belongs to Schedule tribe cleared UGC- NET. It strives hard to bring the students belongs to SC/ST community on par with the mainstream student community. The cell also took adequate steps for sensitizing the students about the menace of caste/or creed based discriminations and the importance of harmony.
